

Our Lord's Resurrection Appearances

In all cases, Jesus' appearances were to disciples, "shown ... not to all people" (Acts 10:40-41). In each of the seven instances below, there are seven hits and three misses.

 Other women (Matthew 28:9-10)
 Emmaus (Luke 24:13-32)
 Cephas (Luke 24:33-35, 1 Cor. 15:5)

(1) These numbers are section references for the 10 post-resurrection appearances of Jesus taken from Robertson, A.T., A Harmony of the Gospels, Harper and Row, New York, 1950. For item 183 also add item 184.

(2) No conclusion about materialization or no materialization can be drawn from the text. However, unless the scripture records something dramatic, like a dematerialization, we may conclude that there was none.

(3) It is reasonable to conclude that Matthew 28:16-20 and 1 Corinthians 15:6 describe the same experience, though there is no positive proof that they do.
